OUR HORSES IN ENGLAND.

The great number of American horses slated to run in England this year renders the following comments taken from the New York Sun worth reproduction:

The shipment of half a dozen of James R. Keene's horses to England yesterday has drawn renewed attention to the coming campaign of prominent American horsemen in the land of roast beef and racing. Most of the American horses already located there seem to have made a high impression on the official handicappers, and they have been placed pretty well toward the top of the list in every scale of weights so far compiled. According to the latest Racing Calendar the American candidates for the early handicaps are by no means so leniently treated as was rumored here about a week ago. There is a remarkable difference of official opinion regarding the racing qualities of Richard Croker's Dobbins. Handicapper Robert I. Anson places him within four of the top weight for the City and Suburban and asks him to carry 119 pounds, while for the Kempton Park Great Jubilee Stakes, with the same horses carrying top weights, Handicapper Egerton lets Dobbins in at 96 pounds. The Field of January 29 makes special mention of this discrepancy.

Glancing through the official lists, the first name to catch the eye, is that of James R. Keene's four-year-old colt Voter in the Babraham Plate, a welter handicap of $2,500, to be run over the Rowley mile at the Newmarket Craven meeting. Voter is next to top weight, his impost being 134 pounds, while H. McCalmont's five-year-old Knight of the Thistle is set to carry 138 pounds. There are twenty-nine others engaged at weights ranging down to 98 pounds. For the Lincolnshire Handicap of $10,000, to be run over the straight mile at the Lincoln spring meeting, Knight of the Thistle is again rated best, at 128 pounds. Voter is third on the list with 124 pounds, and St. Cloud II is slated to carry 119 pounds.

The Epsom spring meeting has been well supported by American owners. In the Great Surrey Handicap of $2,500, five furlongs, are Richard Croker's three-year-old filly Rhoda B., 110 pounds, and the Beresford-Lorillard three-year-old Meta II., 103 pounds. The top weight is Lord Wolverton's six-year-old sprinter Ugly, 138 pounds. For the Prince of Wales' Stakes, a welter handicap of $1,000, one mile, the Beresford-Lorillard stable is represented by Belisama, 4, 117 pounds, and Wrack, 3, 96 pounds. The top weight is C. Morbey's His Reverence, 5, 133 pounds. Then comes the City and Suburban Handicap of $10,000, one mile and a quarter, for which there is a little host of Americans entered. The top weight is Capt. Greer's Kilcock, 130; Dobbins, as already stated, gets 119; Voter is rated at 117, St. Cloud II, at 111, and the Beresford-Lorillard entries are Diakka, 124; Sandia, 117; Berzak, 110, and Nunsuch, 104.

The Hurst Park Spring Handicap of $5,000, one mile, brings a bunch of the Americans well together. Diakka is set to carry top weight, 138, and the others are Sandia, 133; Voter, 129, and Berzak, 125. Turning to the Kempton Park Jubilee Stakes of $15,000, it is noticeable that the two handicappers referred to as having differed so much regarding Dobbins agreed as to the prestige of Kilcock. This horse heads the list for the Kempton event with 133 pounds. The Americans are classed as follows: Diakka, 128; Sandia, 122; Voter, 120; St. Cloud II, 115; Berzak, 108; Archduke II, 98, and Dobbins, 96.

OAKLEY STAKES FILL WELL.

The Oakley experiment of free entrance has produced an imposing array of nominations to the recently closed stakes, the totals being as follows: Diamond, 254; Emerald, 192; Pearl, 206; Sapphire, 165; Moerlein Handicap, 126; Garnet, 241; Gem, 293; Oakley Derby, 1899, 137; Buckeye Stakes, 1899, 126; Cincinnati Oaks, 1899, 110. Under the circumstances the list of declarations, April 1, will also probably be quite imposing, but on the whole it is probable that the net result will be more horses left in than would have been received under the system of money to accompany the nominations.

The Cincinnati Jockey Club is to be congratulated for besides large quantity it has quality in abundance in its entry lists, as is amply illustrated by the following names among the 126 in the Moerlein Handicap: Ornament, Performance, Simon W. Geyser, Box, Buck Massie, Traverser, Parthemax, Meadowthorpe, Macy, White Frost, Alleviate, Lieber Karl, Ulysses, Senator Bland, Taluca, J. H. C. Col. Wheeler, Gallivant, Presbyterian and Candelaria; equine richness enough to please the most exacting.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

A disgruntled bettor accused Willie Martin of pulling Hazard yesterday (February 4). As soon as Martin changed his clothes he sought the man out and after a slight argument smashed him one, two, three, in Fitzsimmons style. It took the big man some time to recover from the knock out. And he now has more respect than ever for Martin's muscular powers.—San Francisco Examiner.

The Frisco supervisors now have for consideration a bill limiting racing on any track within their jurisdiction to forty-eight days in any one year. There was a bill before the distinguished board a short time since that would have wiped out racing in San Francisco had it been adopted, but a member thoughtfully pocketed it and it was lost. Times appear to be hard in spots at Frisco.

Turney Bros. will take their horses to New York about March 15. Besides Dr. Catlett they have the 3-year-olds Swiftmas and Rinaldo and five Candelmas 2-year-olds. One is a full sister to Dr. Catlett. The others have for dams Nell Swift, Landlady, Puritan Lass and Nannie D.

Plunger Riley Grannan is still at Cairo, Egypt, and stuck on the place. He is to take an excursion into the desert before turning westward toward home and the horses.

Cadillac is a horse that may come into prominence as a jumper this year. He has been thoroughly schooled, and takes to the timber topping game as a duck takes to water.

Bow and Arrow is a full brother to the noted racer Sir John, but his track methods are hardly up to the standard set by his distinguished elder brother.

THE HORSES AT MEMPHIS.

A gentleman who is well posted in racing affairs, sends the following items of track gossip from Memphis that will prove interesting to DAILY RACING FORM's readers:

"If you want to see real race horses, you should see some of those at Montgomery Park. The stables belonging to J. W. Schorr & Son, C. T. Patterson, J. C. and Abe Cahn, T. P. Hayes and others are in the very pink of condition. Ornament, looking better than ever, has worked a quarter in 25 1/4; Meadowthorpe in 26 and Algol, his stable companion, in 24 1/4, and of course the talk is all Algol. But it was the same last spring. He could work a quarter or a half faster than anybody's horse, yet did nothing. Knowing ones say he is purely a sprinter and will not go a route.

"Ornament is the horse. Charley Patterson makes no complaint about the weights in the Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps. He says he always thought his colt would get the top weight. He has received offers from different parties who wish to buy Ornament and says he can be bought at his price, although he is not anxious to sell.

"J. M. Murphy's Carnero looks good and is taking his daily gallops. Streamer, the Topgalant colt is also doing remarkably well. Mr. Murphy will ship from San Francisco about March 1. Andy Blakely ships the jumpers Capt. Peirsal, Southworth and Col. Weightman in the same car.

"Captain Rees tells me he will go to San Francisco about March 1 to resume his position as presiding judge at Ingleside. John J. Carter will probably leave there when Captain Rees arrives, as he will preside at Nashville when they open April 1.

"The weights for the Montgomery Handicap are due February 15, and the field should be a good one as the best of the western horses are entered. About the middle of this month young Schorr will bring the New Orleans division to Memphis. Tommy Burns will come with him to rest until the local meeting begins. J. W. Schorr & Son will have twenty-eight in training this year. A part of the stable will be raced in the east, with Johnny Schorr, who is only eighteen years old, as trainer."

BLUE GRASS JIM A CANDIDATE.

James B. Ferguson, who has started so successfully for the California Jockey Club from its inception, is now favorite for the position of starter on the Jockey Club tracks in the east. Some years ago Ferguson handled the red flag with great success in the east, and is recognized now as the best man at the gate in the country. Mr. Ferguson sent in his application to the Jockey Club on Thursday night after receiving permission from Mr. Williams. Ferguson is under agreement to start for the California Jockey Club, but President Williams generously told the starter that they would excuse him for the eastern season.—San Francisco Examiner.

Winner—B. m, 5, by St. Simeon—Maria F.
Start good. Won in a drive. There were smart doings between the first six. Mascota was best. She was shut off sharply in the early stages of the race, is good and won like a lady. She isn't, though. Moringa ran his race and was well ridden. The track was too holding and lumpy for him. Eroica ran a good race. She is a good filly and is ready. Keep her in view. Tab Draught. She is in a winning way. Was well ridden, but after failing to get through was eased up. Watch Agnes Tobin, too. She is ready. So is Rockefeller. He was messed about and eased at end. Sylvester can do better and was badly ridden. Fontera was woefully handled and short. She is a sprinter only, but is ready. Watch her. Milegio will not do at all. Oahu ran a good race.
Scratched—Idomeneus, 92; Chihuahua, 95; Sing Wing, 104; Charmion, 105.

Winner—B. c, by Midlothian—Angelique.

Start good. Won with a lot to spare; second driving. Saintly outclassed the lot and is more than an average colt in quality. Scratch is of the improving kind and so ran. Anchored will improve, too. A fast track will suit him best. He is ready and ran more than a fair race. Buck favors soft going and ran his race. Hooker's dull. He was outclassed. Irelandais and Magno both ran green and short.

Winner—B. m, 5, by Cyrus—Rosette.
Start good. The first five horses were driving hard. Heidelberg was best and should have won. He likes a route, was unlucky, not well managed and was closing stoutly. Coda is game. She was lucky and well ridden, too. Sardou was sore and Ruth short. Gardner and Sardou favor mud. Pleasanton and Jones were outclassed. Palmer and Jones favor fast going. Ruth is ready for action among her own kind.
Scratched—Little Singer, 90.

4097 FOURTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. Purse $500. 3-year-olds and upward. Free Handicap.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Rossington—Marjory.
Start good. Won in a gallop. There was not much doing behind. Marplot was best, lucky and well ridden. He closed strong and is better than the form of his Californian racing. Morellito ran his race. He was overweighted. Lincoln is still short, but is about ready. Tab him for the future. He is best on a fast course. Throw out this race, too, for Myth and Garland Barr both. Thelma was outclassed.
Scratched—Wawona, 95; Mercutio, 104.
